Consideration of Messages from the Governor and the Senate

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
Boise

March 27, 2008

The Honorable Lawrence Denney
Speaker of the House

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have the honor to advise you that I have signed today and am transmitting to the Secretary of State the following Senate Bill, to wit:

H 636

EXCEPT THAT said bill making appropriations of money embracing distinct items has been item vetoed and disapproved within the time limited by law, the bill having been received in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 10:25 a.m. on March 21, 2008. The item disapproved is as follows:

On page 1 of the enrolled bill, line 20, the sum of “$274,000”

The Department of Administration is consolidating the purchase of computers for all state agencies in order to realize significant volume-buying discounts for Idaho taxpayers. However, the Legislative Services Office did not avail itself of that process in its request for these 108 laptop computers for use by legislators. The Department of Administration expects to save $1.2 million in FY2009 on its purchases of desktop and laptop computers as part of a broader effort to consolidate and bring greater efficiency to all of state government’s IT functions. Specifically, the department will be saving an average of at least 25 percent on its purchases of laptops, or about $350,000 of the $1.2 million total savings on computer purchases. I am confident the Legislature will recognize the benefit of similar General Fund savings in the acquisition of new laptops for legislators and take advantage of the Department of Administration program.

Boise

March 20, 2008

The Honorable James E. Risch
President of the Senate

Dear Mr. President,

I have the honor to advise you that I have signed today and am transmitting to the Secretary of State the following House Bills, to wit:

S 1458

EXCEPT THAT said bill making appropriations of money embracing distinct items has been item vetoed and disapproved within the time limited by law, the bill having been received in the Office of the Governor at the hour of 2:45 p.m. on March 14, 2008. The item disapproved is as follows:

On page 1 of the enrolled bill, line 26, the sum of “$2,383,800”

There is no question that we need an effective, community-based substance abuse treatment system in Idaho. There also should be no question that I support providing adequate public resources for treatment. However, the item vetoed in this bill goes far beyond the scope of what state policy makers had in mind when our treatment program was created or what Idaho taxpayers should be expected to accept.

The federal grant that originally put the state on this path was accepted on the premise that the state’s financial responsibility for the treatment program would total $7 million a year at the conclusion of the three-year grant cycle. This legislation provides more than twice that much money without having had the time or opportunity to develop full and reliable data on the benefit of the existing investment.

It has been my consistent position that such investments must be justified over time by results. It is no more than fiscally responsible and prudent to limit funding to the level of the original federal grant until clear data are available and the program’s benefits and shortcomings can be accurately assessed.

What’s more, the federal grant was designed as a tool to develop “access to care” and provide an incentive for building community resources to provide services to those in need. Despite these good intentions, the program has become an unfunded mandate providing state funds to directly provide treatment. The community resources have not been built.

In addition, there are serious questions about how some of the federal grant funding was used – questions about the potential misuse of funds for patients’ health needs beyond treatment. Those questions alone cast doubt on the wisdom or propriety of committing state taxpayer dollars to so dramatically expanding the program.

Finally, let me point out that the line vetoed in this bill does not impact the existing state funding for drug treatment.
